

Please copy and edit the following sentences in your DLI journal. These are all taken from Night, the novel.

1. Her husband, child, mother and two of her sisters had been deported with the first transport, by mistake.

2. We stood naked holding our shoes and clutching our belts and wishing for the nightmare to end.

3. The thick, poisoned air stung the throat glazed the eyes and filled your lungs with soot and ash and all manners of detestable grit.